Progress Report #6

Reporting Period: 1 December through 31 December 1961

I. Work Completed

A. In Task 1.2, techniques were under continuous development and refinement. Our consultant in mathematics, [redacted] is doing excellent work for us in this area.

B. In Task 2.1, a field trip to the Eastern Shore of Maryland was made to collect some suitable miniature photography showing a natural horizon.

C. In Task 2.2, the reruns with the photo theodolite of the controlled photographic test site were completed. The photographic quality and subject detail is excellent.

D. In Task 2.3.2, all photo points have been selected and correlated between exposures from the three sites. Coordinate readout has been completed for some of the photographs.

E. In Task 3.0, the part-time educational specialists are continuing to program the procedures as they are being developed. Progress has been made toward the development of a first draft of the manual.

II. Work Anticipated for the Month of January

A. Work in Task 1.2 will continue.

B. In Task 2.3.2, it is anticipated that coordinate readout and computed data reduction will be completed.

C. In Tasks 3.1 and 3.2, a continuing effort will be expended to complete a first draft of the manual as soon as possible.

III W K:

WITH THE EXCEPTION OF THE ONE
COMMENT ON "HAZARDS" I REALLY
HAVE NO CONCRETE COMMENT.

THE OUTLINED COVERAGE IS VOLUMINOUS
ALBET COLD IN PRESENTATION & COLDNESS
THAT COULD DERIVE FROM THE OUTLINE FORM
AND THE TECHNICAL LANGUAGE.

THE INDICATED VOLUME REFLECTS - I THINK - A THOROUGHNESS OF APPROACH AND TREATMENT
MY ONLY REMAINING QUESTION REFLECTS MY CONVICTION THAT THE FINAL PRODUCT MUST
